PROJECTS

Online Voting System Using Face Recognition

- Developed a secure online voting platform using Python and OpenCV for facial recognition. The system verifies voter identity through real-time face matching, ensuring only registered users can cast votes. Implemented backend with Django, database management using MySQL, and encrypted data transmission for secure and efficient voting.

SpicyHutRestaurant Website

The project involves creating a website for a fictional restaurant called SpicyHutRestaurant using HTML for structure and CSS for styling. A visually appealing website that reflects the branding and ambiance of SpicyHutRestaurant.
